Our Daughter,
I wish you the strength to face challenges with confidence...
along with the wisdom to choose your battles carefully .
I wish you adventure in your high school journey and may you never forget to stop and help someone along the way...
Listen to God, and only take wise risks...
And ALWAYS Remember how much you are loved...

WE ARE SO PROUD OF YOU!

You have become a beautiful young landy.
As you venture into adulthood remember these things:
You will always have the unconditional love of your family.
Be strong and humble with each victory.
Grasp each failure as a leasson learned.
Continue to take the road less travcled.
We are very proud of you.
Much love from All of us <3
